

Daily Governance Report 10-06-2025

1. Major issues highlighted in Print & Electronic Media:

Politics

Religious issues are increasingly influencing Andhra Pradesh's political landscape. Congress leaders in Nizamabad express dissatisfaction following a cabinet expansion that overlooked a four-time MLA. The ruling party is also considering incentives for families with more children.

Education

Andhra Pradesh's SC/ST categories achieved a 100% pass rate in both agriculture and other streams. A Telangana student topped the AP EAPCET 2025 exam. Teacher unions are demanding manual counseling for secondary grade teacher transfers, and the government is considering this.

Infrastructure

Andhra Pradesh aims to complete 1040 km of road works by 2025, valued at Rs 20,067 crore. The state also plans to build a Rs 4,000 crore Quantum Valley, modeled after Silicon Valley. Road works in Kakinada are halted due to contractor issues, causing distress among residents.

Crime

The Telangana High Court will rehear an IAS officer's revision case. A former Telangana SIB chief is being questioned in a phone tapping case. In Anantapur, an MLA provided financial assistance to the parents of a murdered girl, while demanding a strict punishment for the culprit.

Economy

The Telangana-Karnataka zone has the highest number of fraudulent tax deductions after Mumbai. MEPMA AP received 9 Skoch awards for its innovative projects aiding the urban poor. Tamil Nadu views the Blue Economy as a tool for sustainable prosperity in coastal districts.

Social Issues

Desperate fishermen torched invasive 'Rakashi' fish to save their livelihood and protect Cherlapally lake. Alcohol consumption is reported at the entrance of the Alipiri walking path in Tirupati. Anam Venkata Reddy's statue was reinstalled in Nellore, with ministers recalling his legacy.

Sports

The Andhra Cricket Association plans to build cricket stadiums in 25 districts within two years.

Environment

Heavy rains are expected across Andhra Pradesh from June 11, according to the IMD. Thundershowers lashed north Andhra on Sunday and are forecast to continue until June 10.
